Plot Summary

The narrative follows the story of Luca Moretti, a young historian specializing in Italian folklore, who stumbles upon an ancient manuscript in a forgotten library in Venice. The manuscript contains cryptic references to a series of ritualistic murders called "Il bruciacadaveri," or "the cadaver burner," dating back to the 16th century. As Luca begins to investigate, he finds himself drawn into a web of secrets that span centuries, involving secret societies, cursed artifacts, and a malevolent entity seeking vengeance.

The plot thickens when a series of gruesome murders mirror the descriptions in the manuscript, suggesting that the ritual may still be active. Luca teams up with Elena, a local folklorist, and they delve into the dark history of the region, uncovering connections to an ancient cult that worshipped death and decay. The tension escalates as the murders become more frequent and brutal, forcing Luca to confront his own fears and the possibility that some curses are real.
